

First Presbyterian Church Scholarship Funds

The following scholarships are awarded annually to active members of First Presbyterian Church to help defray the cost of post-secondary education at a college, trade school or other educational institution.

Applications for these scholarships are available from the church office and must be returned by July 1. Recommendations for all scholarships are made by the Board of Trustees, in consultation with the Pastor. Recipients may reapply for these awards in subsequent years.

Ida Zecher Memorial – Established in 1999 by Jack and Karen Zecher in honor of his mother's life-long commitment to encourage young people to pursue their education and follow the Lord, Jesus Christ. This $1,000 scholarship is awarded based upon financial need and participation in Christian and public service activities.

Velma Siegfried Memorial – A $500 scholarship established in 2002 by her children, Karen Wright, Brenda Hutnik and Mace Siegfried in honor of their mother's commitment to education and to the life and mission of First Presbyterian Church. Two scholarships are available, based on financial need, demonstrated faith and a willingness to help with church activities.

Robert Nossokoff Memorial – A $500 scholarship established in 2003 by Norma Nossokoff to honor her late husband's life-long commitment encouraging young people to follow the Lord, Jesus Christ, in all areas of their life and work. This scholarship is awarded based upon financial need and active participation in the life and mission of First Presbyterian Church.

Jim Curry, Jr. Memorial – A $500 scholarship established in 2005 by Linda Curry in honor of her late husband. The scholarship is awarded based upon financial need and active participation in the life and mission of First Presbyterian Church.
